To the school we love so dear,
Our hearts will always linger near,
As we sail o'er life's tempestuous sea;
For the friendships good and true,
Our hallowed mem'ries are of you,
To "CC" our love and loyalty.

dedication

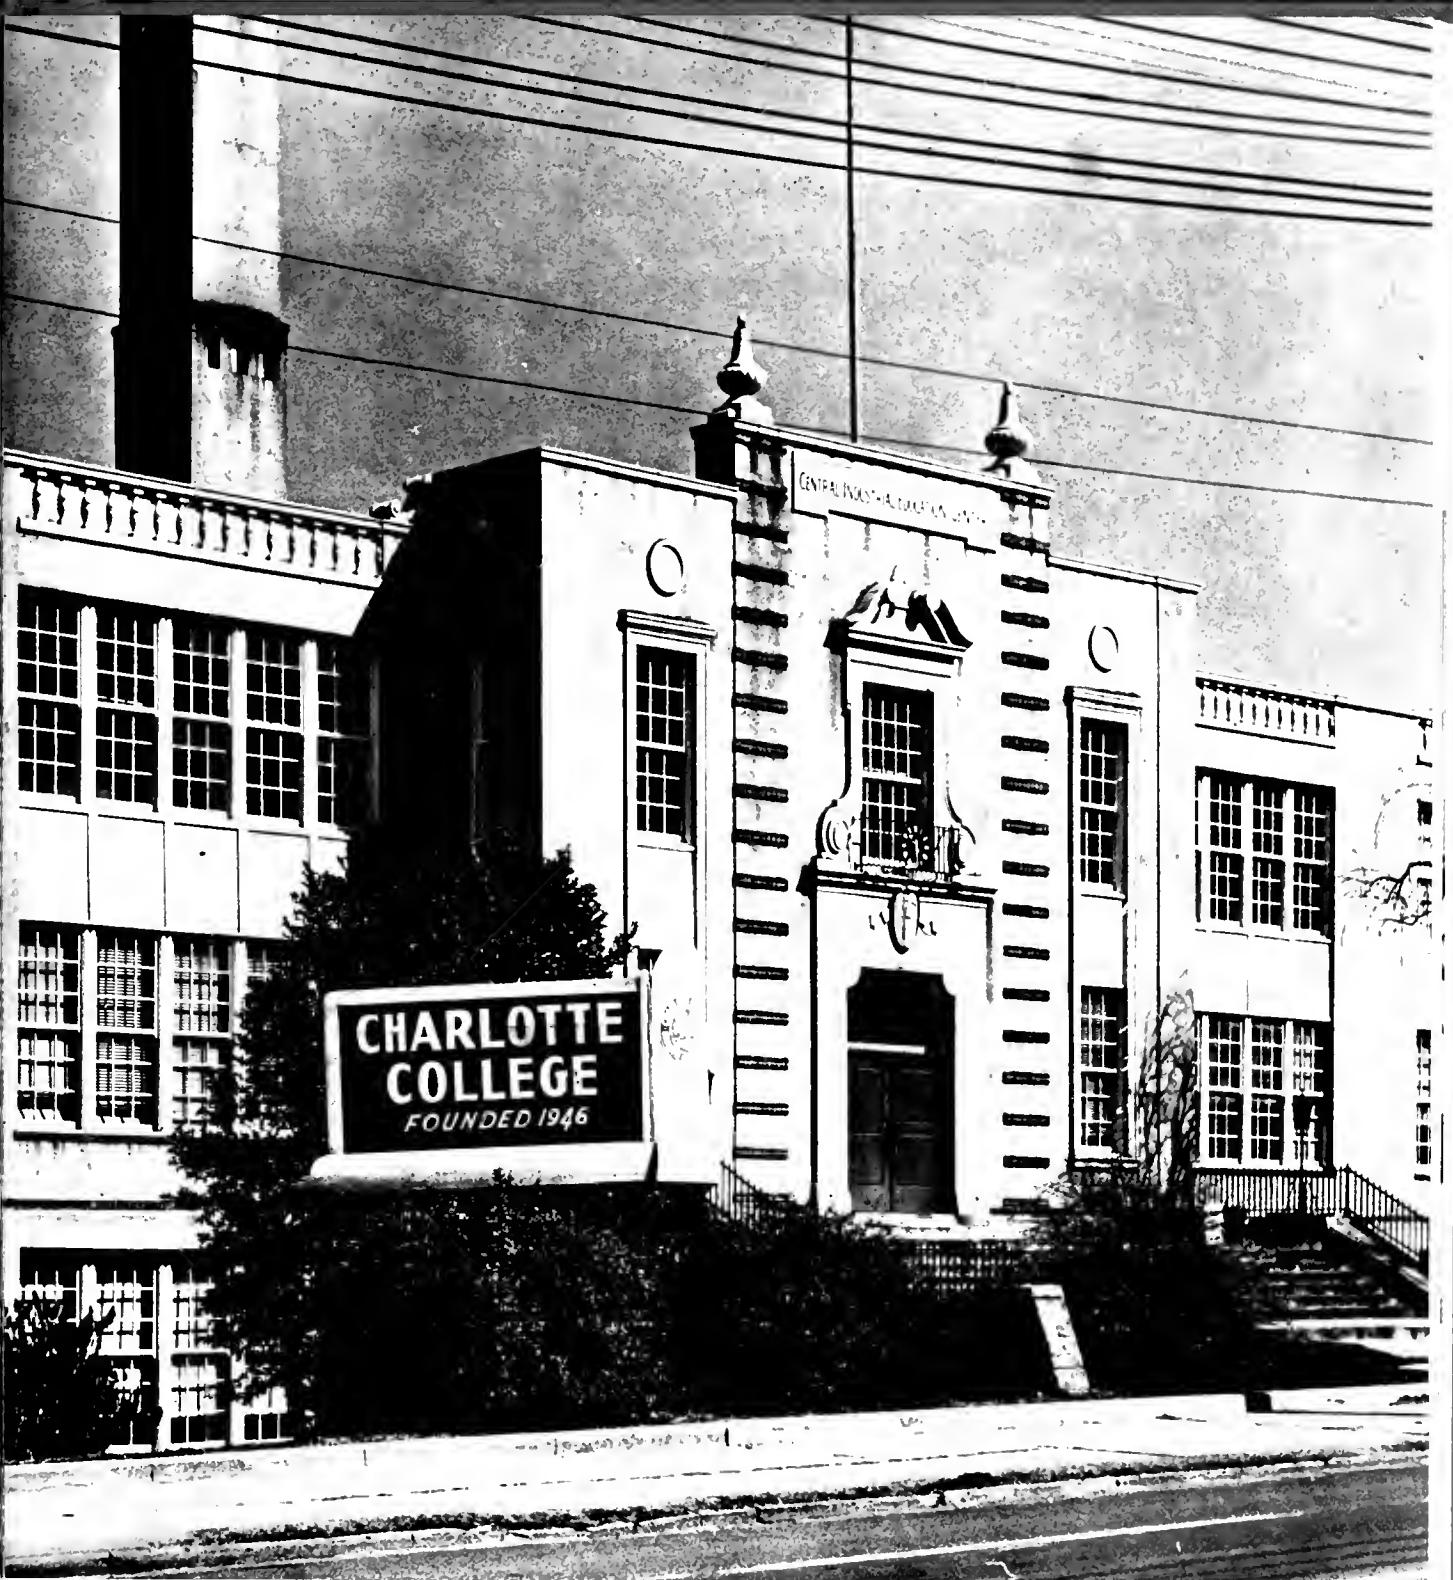

With sincere appreciation for his deep understanding, patient guidance, and personal interest in the students of Charlotte College, we, the staff, dedicate this tenth edition of the Si Si to Dr. PIERRE MACY. He has inspired us to greater achievements through his teaching and counseling and he will be fondly remembered in our memories of Charlotte College.

student council

The Student Council is the governing body of the students at Charlotte College. It serves the student body in every possible way, forming committees vital to the student government program, and formulating with the approval of the students and faculty, certain school policies. A new committee organized this year is the Inter-Club Council whose main responsibility is to coordinate meeting dates to prevent conflicts. Another first this year is membership in the National Students Association.

The Student Council has also served the students through the operation of the Owl's Roost and by providing funds for basketball, assembly programs, the newspaper and social functions.

ELECTIONS

The Elections Committee is in charge of all Student Government elections throughout the year. Votes for the Freshman Class officers, the five Student Council representatives, and the King and Queen of Hearts were tallied by the Elections Committee. The members also prepared the voting places and provided the necessary materials for these elections.

Mr. Ploger, Ann Settemyre, John McManus, Deanna Merrell.

PUBLICITY

The members of the Publicity Committee have worked behind the scenes to make posters advertising the various activities at Charlotte College. The outstanding work for this year has been the many posters giving schedules of the basketball games.

Martha Price, Rose Erwin, Jimmy Latane, Dennis Whittaker, Gary Idol, Jerry Merritt, Mr. Ploger.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

The Inter-club Council is a new organization at Charlotte College organized by the Student Council mainly to fix dates for the meetings of the various campus clubs and to coordinate the many students' activities at the college.

FINANCE

The function of the Finance Committee is to approve budget requests from the committees, publications, and organizations supported by Student Council funds, to make monthly financial reports to the Student Council and to submit a complete financial report to be published in the Collegian at the end of the year.

Jim LaRoach, Jerry Williams, Ed Phillips.

ASSEMBLY

The Assembly Committee has planned the Student Government assembly programs for the year—including arranging seating, setting up the public address system and providing flowers as well as arranging for the guest artists.

First row: Jimmy Baker, Emily Crabtree, Tommy Cornelius.
Second row: Reid Wentz, Jerry Rich.

SOCIAL

Upon the Social Committee lies the responsibility of trying to provide for the Charlotte College students the best possible social activities during the year. Among these were picnics, open houses after basketball games, coffee hours, and informal get-togethers. The members spent many long hours decorating (a tedious task, but fun) and obtaining refreshments from all over town. And then at the last minute they worried about serving the refreshments—and especially mixing the punch (as Miss English, our adviser, will remember!).

Seated: Ed Singleton, Onita Long, Jimmy Hosse. Standing: John Graham, Ann Settemyre, Bill Hicks, Gary Idol.

JOHN YANDLE
Chairman

The Freshman Advisory Council which is a part of the Student Government Association, is composed of members of the student body who are selected by the Student Council each year. The purpose of this committee is to orient new students to Charlotte College, to help them with registration, and to assist faculty advisers in counseling during Orientation Week.

Ed Silber, Deanna Merrell, Olin Giles, Hal Edwards.

The commencement marshals are rising sophomores who have maintained the highest scholastic average during their freshman year. The marshal who has the best academic record is designated chief marshal.

The marshals usher for Commencement, the Baccalaureate program, and Honors and Installation Night, when scholarships and awards are announced and student government officers installed.

JERRY WILSON
President

The purpose of Phi Theta Kappa is to promote scholarship, to develop character, and to cultivate fellowship among the students of the college. Membership is offered to those who achieve and maintain high scholastic requirements. Proper college spirit, interest, and attitude, however, are also necessary for membership.

Phi Theta Kappa engages in various types of activity. Its primary project this year is to give a full scholarship to an entering Freshman at Charlotte College. To raise money for this project, Phi Theta Kappa has had car washes and sold candy.

The principal aim of Sigma Lambda Chi Fraternity is to promote the high standards and ideals of Charlotte College through wholesome social activities and services to the students and to the college.

The outstanding award from the fraternity is the Sigma Lambda Chi Scholarship, which is awarded annually to a freshman. The money is raised through the sale of decals and the labor of the members who wash and wax cars.

Several informal gatherings and formal dinner-dance parties were planned by the Social Committee this year.

The Charlotte College Chapter of the Student National Education Association is composed of prospective teachers. The purpose of the N. E. A. is to create and maintain an interest in and appreciation of teaching as a profession.

The N. E. A. has sponsored a lounge on the second floor of the old Central Building. The chapter also sent representatives to a state-wide convention in Raleigh. This proved very helpful and interesting to the members and the club.

C. C. U. N.

The Collegiate Council of the United Nations is a very active group. Its purpose is to help students to become aware of and take part in the present day world affairs. This year, the C. C. U. N. has sent representatives to the mock U. N. meetings in Greensboro and Chapel Hill. They also sponsored a trip to New York and the United Nations Building over the Thanksgiving holidays.

The purpose of the Charlotte College Chorus is to help enrich the lives of those who actually participate in the singing and to present to the student body both entertaining and educational music. Membership increased throughout the year, especially after an inspiring Christmas program was presented to the students. Because this program consisted of music of a more serious nature, a program of lighter variety was given on March 4, 1960. Under the able guidance of Mr. Harvey Woodruff, the chorus has enjoyed this year.

The Charlotte College Owls, under Coach Gene Todd, opened their 1959-60 season with spirit and desire.

Being a member of the Virginia-Carolina Athletic Conference, the Owls traveled to major junior colleges in both states.

The experience gained from early games enabled the Owls to become stronger as the season advanced.

With the majority of the year's squad returning next year, the Owls should qualify as a strong contender for the conference championship.
